FRANKFORT, SEPTEMBER 25, 1886.

The Mikado and the Centennial.

Now that the Centennial is to be an assured success let us all pull together and make that success such as will be long remembered. The Mikado will give a grand entertainment at the Opera House next Thursday night, and the best of it is that every cent taken in will be handed over to help pay the expenses of the Centennial. This was exceedingly good of the boys and girls who make up the Mikado Company. They want to help Frankfort to stand before the world as a noble-hearted and generous city, which it is.

This is the spirit which should govern all our citizens in making donations to the Centennial. Every one can go the Mikado for fifty cents if they choose to go in at that price; but we do think that on this occasion, when the home-folks are giving the entertainment to help raise funds for the Centennial, that all liberal-minded persons, who have not already subscribed to the Centennial fund, would do themselves and the city credit for generosity, by giving the door-keeper their checks for $5, $10, $20, or $50 instead of paying the ordinary fee of fifty cents, in order to help the Centennial in giving this grand entertainment. The names of those whose souls persons who aid the Centennial in this way ought to be preserved among the records of the Centennial. Let the entire population of this city and county be at the Opera House next Thursday night and thus aid the Centennial.

Two men were received at the Penitentiary on Tuesday, who were sent from Union county, having been convicted under the law making gambling a felony. These are the first convictions so far under the new law.

The new sewer in South Frankfort is to have a fall of nine inches to the hundred feet, which it is claimed will cause it to discharge its contents into the river with sufficient force to carry off any deposit that may be left in its mouth by the eddy into which it empties.

An article appeared in the Louisville Commercial Friday stating that the Kentucky Military Institute in this county was about to suspend operations, there being but twenty scholars in attendance. Col. R. D. Allen, the Superintendent, published a card in the same paper on Monday saying he had no intention of closing the school, and that the institution was in a flourishing condition, forty pupils being in attendance.

The splendid new Champion Saw and Planing Mills of Judge W. L. Pence, in Bellepoint, came near being destroyed by fire Monday afternoon. A large pile of bark near the mill caught fire from some cause, and smoldered for a long time without being discovered, but finally burst out by the side of the mill in a bright blaze. It was extinguished with a force pump and hose, which had been put in when the mill was rebuilt to guard against fire.

Rev. George Darsie returned Thursday from his trip to Boston and will occupy his pulpit as usual to-morrow morning and evening.

There are two to be weddings in this city on the 13th of October, one on the 14th, one on the 27th, with several couples to hear from.

Mr. James T. Larkin has been elected a policeman by the City Council to fill the vacancy occasioned by the removal of Mr. P. F. Smith.

Mr. W. J. Hughes has been elected a member of the City Council from the First Ward to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Minus Williams.

A thief broke into the residence of Mr. Frank Trumbo, three miles from this city, on the Millville pike, Tuesday night, but was frightened away before we secured anything of value.

The Cavalry company raised at Jett Station to participate in the Centennial parade is not a very large body, but are a well drilled company and will present a handsome appearance.

Mrs. Sol Harris has placed us under obligations for a file of late New York papers, she having just returned from that city, where she has been purchasing her fall stock of millinery goods.

Next Tuesday evening the anniversary meeting of the Blue Ribbon Club will be held at the Court-house, and all friends of temperance are cordially invited and urged to attend. A number of good speeches will be delivered.

At the regular annual election of officers of Frankfort Chapter, No. 2, Royal Arch Masons, held on Tuesday evening, the following were chosen for the ensuing year:

W. S. Caplinger, High Priest.
V. A. Kaltenbrun, King.
Peter Light, Scribe.
Gus. Shaffer, Captain of Host.
Geo. A. Lewis, Principal Sjongener.
Jas. A. Murray, Royal Arch Captain.
R. M. Grant, Grand Master 3d Veil.
Jos. R. Stafford, Grand Master 2d Veil.
Jas. E. Graham, Grand Master 1st Veil.
W. S. Dehoney, Secretary.
W. T. Reading, Treasurer.
Samford Goin, Steward and Tyler.

We have received from our young friend, Mr. George G. Graham, at Santa Ana, Sohora, Mexico, another lot of those curious little dancing beans. The following interesting letter, which accompanied them, will tell you all about them:

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

FRANKFORT, SEPTEMBER 25, 1886.

The Thompson Opera Company gave a most successful performance of Varnie's Comic Opera, "The Maskaters." To say that they pleased the Frankfort public by their singing and acting would be but scant praise. Their interpretation of the musical and humorous excellence of the piece was all that could be desired. As "Narcisse," Mr. Chas. Shackford earned off the honors of the evening, receiving a double call before the curtain at the end of the second act. Miss Tellia Eva; the prima donna, was in fine voice, and acted the part of "Marie" with charming grace and truth. Her voice is a high soprano, and was shown to advantage in the song "My love is like a withered flower." As the "Abbe," Mr. Wm. Wolf was excellent. He is a character actor of the highest stamp, and showed his wonderful versatility in the changes from humor to pathos, in which the play abounds. As "Goutran," Mr. Joe Armand displayed a dramatic ability seldom found in tenors, and a voice well suited to the plaintive songs he sang. The Lady Superior (Miss Genevieve Reynolds), and "Simone" (Miss Hattie Starr), were patterns of good acting and stage appearance. Miss Starr's song "Fie-a-pa!" received a hearty encore. The chorus is well trained and good looking, and the general stage effect very pleasing; due, in no small measure, to the supervision of Mr. Harry Standish, the indefatigable Stage Manager. In fine, the Thompson Opera deserves a generous patronage as much for their excellent singing, as for their spirited acting. "Macnair" will be produced this evening with full casts.

Residence for Sale.

Mrs. Humphrey Evans offers her residence, 224 Lewis street, at private sale. The house contains nine rooms, and is conveniently located. For further information call at the residence. Sept. 25th.

A Model School Room and a Model School.

Col. John L. Scott has a model school at his home, Edgewood, near this city, conducted by Miss Halderman, of Paris.

The school room is handsomely decorated with portraits, pictures and Chinese characters, thus giving relief to the tired eyes from hard study and at a trifling expense.

Why cannot our county teachers encourage the children thus to decorate their school rooms?

Although this is Miss Halderman's first school she gives promise of making a successful teacher.

Col. Scott is a good example to the citizens of Kentucky by educating his children at home instead of sending them abroad.

Miraculous Escapes.

W. W. Reed, druggist, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "One of my customers, Mrs. Louisa Pike, Bartonla, Randolph Co., Ind., was a long sufferer with Consumption, and was given up to die by her physicians. She heard of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and began buying it for me. In six months' time she walked to this city, a distance of six miles, and is now so much improved she has quit using it. She feels she owes her life to it." Free Trial Bottles at Jos. NOTICE.
JOHN C. DENNIS, CHARLES C. NEWTON, WM. F. TRACY, James Tracy and Albert O. Graham have associated themselves together as a corporation under the name and style of the Pea Ridge and Russell Mill, Furnace Road Company, and their principal place of business is Frankfort, Ky. They propose to build a turnpike road from a point on the Beason turnpike road, at or near the place known as a kind of Robinson and E. T. Collins, and running thence westward so as to connect with the Bridgeport and Beason turnpike, or near the Bridgeport turnpike. The amount of Capital Stock is seven thousand dollars, consisting of twenty shares, each of $350.00, and to be paid in at such times and upon such conditions as the corporation may from time to time need and require. The corporation commenced on the 22d day of September, 1886, and is to continue for fifty years. The affairs of the corporation are to be conducted by a board of directors to be elected annually by the stockholders, to hold office, however, until a new board is elected. The corporation shall at no time subject itself to an indebtedness of more than its capital stock, and private property is to be exempted from corporate debts. JOHN C. DENNIS, Chairman, Sept-14

DURING THE TEN YEARS ABOVE MENTIONED I HAVE ALWAYS TRIED TO KEEP UP WITH THE TIMES!

And give my customers the benefit of everything new in the market and to fill the wants of my patrons with the

BEST GOODS AT THE LOWEST PRICES!!

I have just added to my stock a

LARGE ASSORTMENT of FRENCH AND GERMAN CHINA

From the celebrated factories at Limoges and Carlsbad; also a large variety of Fancy Goods from all Parts of the World!

The largest ever brought to Frankfort, and at prices that defy competition. Having selected the stock in person from the factories' agents in New York, I assure my old customers, and as many new ones as wish to come, that the prices and goods cannot be duplicated in any city. I will make this branch of my business second to none in the State, and will constantly add new lines, so that my patrons can depend on getting the latest patterns to be had and always at the lowest prices. Since adding this line I have been asked if I was going to give up my

STOVE AND TINWARE BUSINESS!

I answer my patrons, I have bought the largest stock in this line since I have been in business, and that the prices will be lower than the lowest. A visit to my store will convince everyone that I mean what I say. Give me a call.

The R. R. Springer who signed the above was the late Reuben R. Springer, of Cincinnati, who died about two years ago worth some two million of dollars.

Forks of Elkhorn.

Farmers have commenced sowing small grain.
Thanks to Miss Katie Cannon for subscribing for the ROUNDABOUT.
Mrs. Wm. Bedford spent three days at Bloomfield, Ky. last week with her sister, Mrs. Jno. Reed.
Mr. Robert Exum and wife, and Miss Gertrude Sharp, of Frankfort, visited Mr. Thomas Cannon and family last Saturday.
Mrs. Cass Wood raised a cucumber in her garden this season that weighed

5 pounds. It is of the long green variety. Also one of the white spine variety that weighed 2½ pounds.

The bride and groom, Mr. Jno. Reed and wife—see Miss Maggie Allen, daughter of Mr. Wash Allen, lately of this county, but now of Shelby—were the guests of Mr. Thomas Cannon and family last week, when they went to Bloomfield, Ky., where they will reside.

The Franklin County Teachers' Association met with us last Saturday, and it was a great day for our village and one to be long remembered.
At 10 o'clock, a. m., Bro. Cody baptized eight converts, who had made a profession of religion at Buckrun church during the revival of last week, and the week before. After the sacred rites had been performed, the crowd gathered at our new school house for the purpose of dedicating it. Mr. Hunter, the president of the Association, made an interesting address, and made a few remarks in regard to education, and which a song and prayer. Then the President introduced Mr. Thos. B. Ford, as the first speaker. We need not comment on his speech for every one who has listened to Bro. Tom on any subject, knows that he cannot be excelled as a speaker, especially on the great subject of education. He goes to the very bottom of his subject and touches it everything of interest and lays it before his eager audience.

The next speaker introduced, was our talented countryman, Hon. Thos. W. Scott, who for precision and eloquence cannot be excelled. His subject was handled by him in grand style, and he held the listener as by magic.

Adjournment for dinner was next in order which was abundantly supplied by the good people of our community; and right here we will say that whoever went away from that table hungry it was their own fault. We owe a vote of thanks to Mr. Ben. Sullivan for his kind assistance in preparing the burgoo, which was pronounced par excellence.

After dinner we returned to the school house to listen to the old war horse of education, Mr. Jno. L. Scott, who in his wonderful way can hold his audience and secure their attention as no other man can. In his eloquent style, he carried us back one hundred years ago, and then brought us along the line of time to the present, showing us what grand improvements have been made in everything and especially that of education.

Last, but not least, was an essay read by Miss Maggie Downey, which was unsurpassed for beauty and style, and it bespeaks for that most accomplished and beautiful young lady a brilliant future.

At the close Mr. Hunter gave the history of the gospel that was used in these meetings, which was very interesting.

The delightful music rendered by Miss Lullie Colburn and Mrs. Ryland Bedford on the organ, was delightful. We are sorry that space forbids a further description of the speeches of those good men, and the essay of that talented young lady and all the exercises. May the good Lord of creation spare your lives and enable you to accomplish great things in the future for the cause of education both to the mental and spiritual.

Bridgeport.

Corn cutting.
Ho for the Centennial.
Coplous showers since our last.

The farmers are sowing wheat and rye.

Sorghum making is now in full blast.

Another slight frost last Monday night.

The corn shuck indicates another hard winter.

Mrs. Mary Robinson has been very ill this week.

The sun left us on the side of winter last Wednesday.

A Sunday-school picnic at South Benson Church to-day.

Coal will be used as fuel in this town and vicinity this winter.

Mr. J. H. Bailey has also returned from a week's visit to Louisville.

Mrs. Lizzie Roberts, who was quite sick the first of the week, is better.

Mr. J. D. Parrent and Otto Wheat were in Shelbyville last Monday.

Sam Parrent has returned home from a two weeks' visit to Louisville.

The trouble now existing is to find names for the babies in this vicinity.

Miss Annie Collins, of Lawrenceburg, is the guest of Mrs. Wm. D. Miller.

The protracted meeting at the Baptist Church in Graceburg closed last Monday night.

Mr. Jas. W. Harrod and wife and son visited relatives at Bagdad last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Hardin Magruder, of Shelby county, has been visiting relatives in this section this week.

Mr. Otto Wheat and wife have returned home from their visit to relatives in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Our failure to report certain items in this community is owing to our ignorance of their existence.

Mr. H. H. Hawkins and family, of Lexington, have been visiting relatives in this section for some days.

Mr. Joseph Terry killed a crane, last Monday, 4 feet 9 inches tall and 6 feet 1 inch from tip to tip of wings.

Messrs. R. D. Armstrong, Price Towles and Billie Armstrong attended court at Georgetown last Monday.

Rev. T. N. Arnold will conduct devotional exercises at Bridgeport Christian Church to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Jas. R. Sargent and daughters, and Mr. Albert Corbin, of Anderson, gave quite an interesting concert in this town last Friday night.

From the conduct exhibited at the singing last Friday night we should judge boys to be about as men, unlike as one black-eyed pea is like another. Who is to blame?

No services at Franklin Church last Sunday as reported by the ROUNDABOUT, to-morrow at 3 o'clock will be the time, as previously announced. Rev. Dr. Hendrick will officiate.

A cavalry company (100 men) will be organized in Bridgeport to-day at 2 o'clock, p. m. for the purpose of participating in the Centennial ceremonies to be held in Frankfort Oct. 8, 1886. Rally, boys, rally.

A lady in this section moved 19 turkey eggs 2½ miles over a rough road in a spring wagon after they had been set out for two weeks and then they every one hatched. "Eggs will not hatch if they are shaken" proves to be a fallacy.

When symptoms of malaria appear in any form, take Ayer's Malaria Cure at once, to prevent the development of the disease, and continue until health is restored. A cure is warranted in every instance.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

FURNISHED BY GLOVES & DUBETT, PROPRIETORS LOUISVILLE TOBACCO WAREHOUSE.

There has been no special change in the price of dark tobacco this week, but the market closed a little steadier. Would advise growers not to let the fear of frost make them cut their tobacco before it is ripe. The common nondescript unripe tobacco will sell very low this season. The sales for the week amount to 2,880 hhds. with receipts of 1,000 hhds. for the same period. The sales since January 1st amount to 101, 218 hhds. The following quotations fairly represent our market for dark tobacco.

Trash.....	$1.00 to $2.00
Common to Medium Leaf.....	2.00 to 3.00
Good Leaf.....	3.00 to 4.00
Common to Medium Leaf.....	3.50 to 4.50
Good to Fine Leaf.....	4.50 to 6.00
Leaf of extra length.....	6.00 to 7.00
Wrappery leaf.....	7.00 to 12.00

Educational.

The Franklin County Teachers' Institute will meet in the Hall of the House of Representatives on the 14th and 15th of October next.

All teachers holding certificates in the county must attend under penalty of forfeiture of the same, unless a reasonable excuse is sent to the County Superintendent at the time of the meeting.
T. HUNTER,
C. S. S. of F. C.

S. S. S.

Tobacco all cut.

Corn cutting in full blast.

Crops of all kinds are better than ever known before.

Stock hogs five cents a pound and can't be found at that.

Mr. Pierce Bryant sent his cat to Lexington this week to be present at the races.

Mr. James A. Flynn has folded his tent and stolen away, mill and all, so no more explosions.

What has become of that school-house carpet that was so much talked of? Was it all talk.

Mrs. Nannie and Felle Moore have returned home from Lexington. Both much improved in health.

Three dudes who sat in the window opposite the store of the late and lamented old Uncle Jack, came very near breaking up the Breckinridge meeting last Court day. Where were the police?

Zeke Yocum played thunder with me in giving me away as a grass widow. The old fellow, I was rejected to take the pill roller, now pills has quit, and old batch has got the mumps, and I don't think I have had any use for Zeke since he sat beside that bar when he was all night at Bald Knob. We didn't think you so mean, Zeke, as to give away a poor GRAM WIDOW.

Tioga.

Remember the Educational Mass-meeting to-day at Harp. Tobacco, in quantity and quality, turns out a success to the farmers of Franklin.

Prof. Jones, "the cast iron man," will give a dramatic entertainment to-night at Harp.

Our lady who chopped his mother's crutches into stove wood and now the old lady has to go it on all fours.

The ROUNDABOUT will make mention of every Teacher, in next issue, who will be present to-day at Harp.

The term "horrid fright" was enthusiastically applied to a three-story hut in a front row by at least fifteen society girls.

Tioga will never rank as a city until the State grants her a license to sell fuel-oil which is death to body and soul.

Tioga and vicinity is as silent as the grave, save the occasional whisper "are you going to the monster meeting" at Harp.

If the State Superintendent of Public Instruction was directed by law to pay the teachers monthly the needy teachers in our west end are desirous to know it.

The nest of a mouse has been removed seven times from the interior of the organ at the Institute, in presence of crowds of spectators. She has remained on her nest undisturbed while the instrument was in constant operation.

Prof. Tracy, of the Moorland Institute, is solicited, by many, to play the "Star Spangled Banner" at the Centennial on an instrument. In his possession, which played at the coronation of Queen Elizabeth. The citizens here will welcome President Scott for space on his programme.

TO THE PUBLIC.

HAVING PURCHASED THE STOCK OF GROCERIES, CANNED GOODS, COUNTRY PRODUCE, and in fact everything kept in a first-class Grocery store, I have the attention of the people of Franklin and Franklin county, and more particularly those of South Frankfort, who will find my location quite a convenience, and I hope by close attention to business and fair dealing to receive a portion of the trade patronage.

Goods delivered promptly in any part of the city. Give me a call and be convinced.

Very respectfully,
JOHN L. JONES,
South Frankfort, Ky.
